	UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA - MAIN CAMPUS
	Ann Weaver Hart, President
	(520) 621-5511
	A.R.S. § 15-1601

Mission:

To improve the prospects and enrich the lives of the people of Arizona and the world through education, research, creative expression, and community and business partnerships.

Description:

The University of Arizona in Tucson, including branch campuses in Sierra Vista and downtown Phoenix, is a land-grant, doctoral research university. Its research and development expenditures place it among the nation's top public universities and it is a member of the Association of American Universities. It offers a broad array of programs leading to degrees from baccalaureate through the doctorate. It has a total student body enrollment of over 40,000 full-time and part-time students. As a land-grant university, it maintains programs in production agriculture, mining, and engineering and serves the State through its cooperative extension services, technology transfer, economic development assistance, distributed education, and cultural programming. The University provides distinguished undergraduate, graduate, and professional education; excels in basic and applied research and creative achievement; and promotes the integration of these activities and outcomes into advancement of Arizona's economy.
